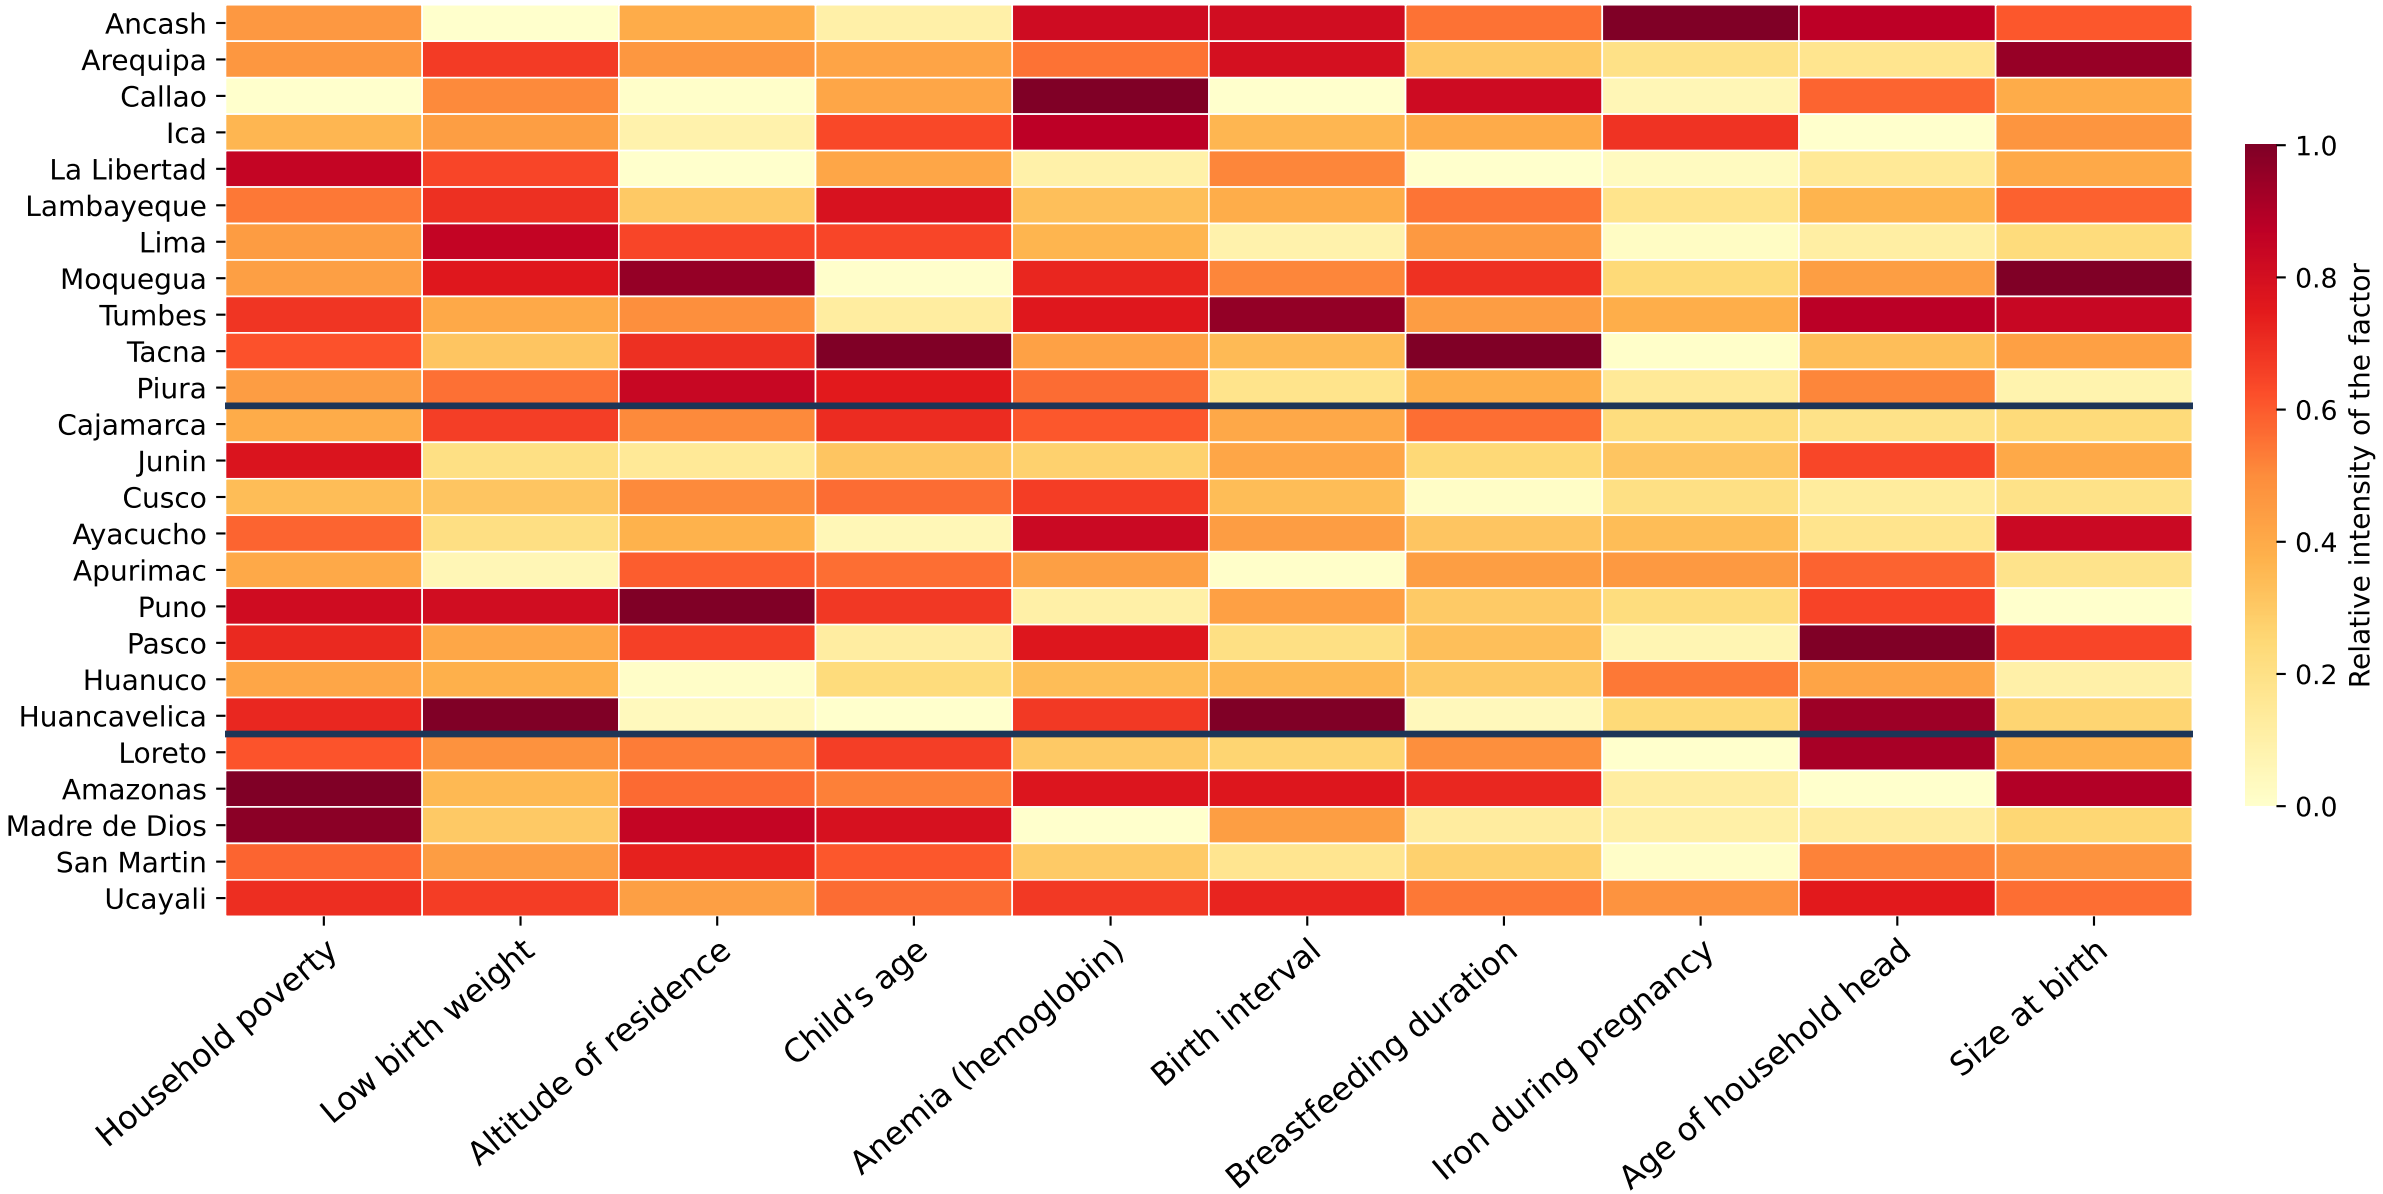
Which factor weighs most in each department



The more intense the color, the greater the weight of that factor in that department. Bands separated by natural region: coast, highlands and rainforest.